Happy New Year, 2024!!!

Dear Trinity,

The year started for the Crook family waking up on New Year's Day with 2 fences and 3 trees blown over! A rather ominous sign. Thankfully we got a tree service to come that day to remove the trees (can we say $$$$$) so that no further damage would occur.

It was that kind of year. Hard and hopeful.

I lost both my parents this year and almost lost my dear Paulina during the post-birth of Timothy. That was hard.

Timothy and Paulina are healthy. Tiffany, Mom, and Dad are slowly adjusting to a new rhythm of life, but it seems to change weekly, if not daily! We are all healthy...and sleepy! We just spent our first Christmas together...it was wonderful.

That was hopeful.

This year at Trinity for me and us as a family has been wonderful. The church continues to become more and more vibrant. Children and youth ministries, financial giving and your serving the church in a variety of areas – from Vacation Bible School to Sunday morning – has been so encouraging.

You all have blessed us this year with a wonderful baby shower, food for weeks after Timothy was born and financial coverage for our medical insurance...we thank you SO much!

A highlight for me was last week's Christmas Eve services. WOW! The music, the youth participation, the candle lighting, and the singing...wonderful and extremely hopeful.

As we enter another year, Paulina, and I thank you for your encouragement shown in your words and your generous loving actions. We look forward to this year with its challenges, new adventures, and blessings.

With love and in ministry together, Pastor Jamie

We are building a new Children's library at Trinity!

With the growth in our kids' ministry, we are excited to offer a reading corner in our Sunday School classroom where children and caregivers can read, and eventually borrow, books about God's love for them and how we live in response to God's love. Lori has been carefully choosing books that are theologically sound and support our teaching here at Trinity. They are all conveniently gathered on an Amazon wish list. If you would like to purchase books for our library, please follow this link to see which books we would like to offer our children and families. Thank you for your generosity!
